Sunday School Report

Given by Steve Coraluzzi. For now let's table conversation about how to/if we will have Sunday School starting in September. We could think about a weeknight Zoom bible study. Talk to teachers about what a good night would be. This could last about 30 minutes. Zoom fatigue of kids will need to be factored in.

Given by Sergio Georgi. Topics covered included the following:

- Testing of live streaming good, working on noise filtering
- Figured out a way to transmit the livestream to Zoom
- Zach will provide the Zoom link for Sunday

- Things look good for Sunday #1 on 7/12 – waiting on the camera we want to become available for future services
- We will see how the internet quality is for streaming
- With our technology updates we will have a cell phone that we can give to the new priest
- Livestream is promoted on Facebook/Instagram
- Sergio suggests going on YouTube eventually
