Monthly Giving for September: Paper towels

Thirteenth Sunday After Pentecost

The Lord spoke this parable. “There was a householder who planted a vineyard, and set a hedge around it, and dug a wine press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to tenants, and went into another country. “When the season of fruit drew near, he sent his servants to tenants, to get his fruit; and the tenants took his servants and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again, he sent other servants, more than the first; and they did the same to them. Afterward he sent his son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’ But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, ‘This is the heir; come, let us kill him and collect his inheritance.’ And they took him and cast him out of the vineyard and killed him. “When therefore the owner of the Vineyard comes, what will he do with his tenants?” They said to him, “He will put those retches to a miserable death, and let out the vineyard to other tenants who will give them the fruits in their seasons.” Jesus said to them, “Have you never read in the scriptures: “The very stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner: this is the Lord’s doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?”

Nativity of the Theotokos September 8th In addition to the celebration of the Annunciation, there are three major feasts in the Church honoring Mary, the Theotokos. The first of these is the feast of her nativity which is kept on the eighth of September. The record of the birth of Mary is not found in the Bible. The traditional account of the event is taken from the apocryphal writings which are not part of the New Testament scriptures. The traditional teaching which is celebrated in the hymns and verses of the festal liturgy is that Joachim and Anna were a pious Jewish couple who were among the small and faithful remnant—“the poor and the needy”—who were awaiting the promised messiah. The couple was old and childless. They prayed earnestly to the Lord for a child, since among the Jews barrenness was a sign of God’s disfavor. In answer to their prayers, and as the reward of their unwavering fidelity to God, the elderly couple was blessed with the child who was destined, because of her own personal goodness and holiness, to become the Mother of the Messiah-Christ.

Raffle Basket to benefit Sunday School: Elisabeth Papa has put together another basket for a raffle with the proceeds to benefit the Sunday School. Elisabeth coordinated a raffle last year and raised over $500.00. The basket contains an Owala 20 oz FreeSip Sway Stainless Water Bottle, Sol de Janerio Delicia Drench Jet Set from Sephora, a night light and many school supplies. She bought the items in the basket with her own money and put the basket together herself. Please buy a raffle tix from the Chairperson of our Sunday School Fundraising Committee, Elisabeth Papa!!
